

In talking to the community over the last few months, a number of community projects have been a new centre. $100,000 was designated in the recent budget, which the CEO has informed me is being used towards design and planning, with funding for works being applied for and required from