

I am Generation born after World War II in Canada. I was born in 1949 from years of economic growth, above average life expectancy, and a trade and farming family. The

